

Patricia Angrisano-Ossa: Biographical Statement

Patricia Angrisano-Ossa was born and raised in Buffalo, New York. In her youth, Patty drew and sketched, had a line of tropical clothing in her 20's, and dabbled in mosaics. Only recently she has found a love for watercolor!

Her greatest and most meaningful inspiration was her mother, Patricia Angrisano, an accomplished artist who cultivated an atmosphere ripe for creating.

Patty has spent much time living in the beautiful countries of Mexico and Chile. Her love of their rich music and culture fed her passion even deeper. Colorful images of her travels always remain present in her artwork. Strong, vibrant hues and powerful symbols that reflect peaceful energy are continually present in Patty's work. Mermaids, musicians and dreamin' trees dance among Patty's watercolors, acrylics and mosaics.
