

Megan Doherty: Biographical Statement

Megan Doherty loves art. She enjoys creating her own artwork, viewing other artist's work and teaching art to young people. Not only does she take pleasure in sharing her knowledge about art history and the process of making art, but she wants her students to experience art and understand how much it affects their lives. This year will be Megan's 20th year teaching art at Maple West Elementary in Williamsville. "My students amaze me and inspire me each and every day.
