

Minority / Women Owned Business in Amherst Business Associations

American Business Women's Association (ABWA)

<http://www.abwawny.com>

Mission statement: to bring together businesswomen of diverse occupations and to provide opportunities for them to help themselves and others grow personally and professionally through leadership, education, networking, support and national recognition.

National Association of Women Business Owners (NAWBO)

<http://nawbowny.org>

NAWBO Buffalo Niagara is the premier business organization representing Western New York women entrepreneurs. NAWBO is a leading advocate for women business owners who aspire to higher levels of opportunity, challenge, and success.

Zonta International

<http://zontacheektowaga-lancaster.org>

Zonta International seeks to advance the status of women worldwide by improving the legal, political, economic, educational, health and professional status of women at global and local levels through service and advocacy.

Key 4 Women

<http://key4women@keybank.com>

Key4Women is a nationwide community of entrepreneurial and executive business women brought together by KeyBank to help them thrive.

Canisius College Women Business Center

<http://wnywbc.canisius.edu>

Our mission is to empower entrepreneurs to succeed through education, connections and community. We do this by developing leaders, fostering opportunities and building collaborations.

Amherst Chamber of Commerce

<http://amherst.org>

The Amherst Chamber of Commerce was founded in 1956 by a group of older Williamsville businessmen who represented the majority of businesses along Main Street. Now, 51 years later, our Chamber is one of the country's largest suburban chambers. Through its Board of Directors, scores of dedicated volunteers, strategic partnerships and more than 2,000 members, the Chamber works to protect, accelerate and facilitate collaboration of the business interests in the Buffalo Niagara region.

The Junior League

<http://www.jlbuffalo.org/>

The Junior League of Buffalo, Inc. is an organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women, and improving the community through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Its purpose is exclusively educational and charitable.